Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Seed Fund (MLK Scholarship) of the Ministers' Conference of Winston-Salem and Vicinity

$1,000 (towards a 4-year college) or $500 (towards a community/technical college) Martin Luther King Scholarships will be given to selected students who are graduating high school seniors and are members of a church that has contributed, in the current year, to the MCWS&V MLK Scholarship Memorial Seed Fund. All scholarships will be one year and non-renewable.

Eligible Applicants for a Martin Luther King Scholarship must:

- Be a high school senior with a GPA of 2.0 or better.
- Plan to attend and enroll in a two or four year college or university.
- Be involved in church, civic, community, and school extracurricular activities. (please provide two letters of recommendation, with one being from your pastor)
- Additionally, the Applicant's Church should be an Active Contributor to the MLK Scholarship Memorial Seed Fund.

Applications for MLK Scholarship must be submitted to the Ministers' Conference of Winston-Salem and Vicinity, no later than: June 18, 2024 (5:00 p.m. ET)
